Trainer: Dr. Ann-Katrin Bockmann

Ann-Katrin is an IFS Institute Certified IFS Therapist and Approved Clinical Consultant living in Germany. For the IFS Institute she has been facilitating IFS trainings in different countries as Co-Lead Trainer and Program Assistant.

She is a certified Somatic IFS Therapist and on staff with Susan McConnell. Ann-Katrin is trained in IFIO - using IFS with couples. She has many years of clinical experience in working with adults, children and adolescents, parents, systems and organisations and professionals in helping professions as well as the educational field.

She is involved in the official German psychotherapy training (CBT) as a lecturer, supervisor and self-experience provider. To her IFS is a paradigm that supports the psychotherapist profoundly, has great potential to transform psychotherapy and gives answers to the worldwide meaning crisis. As a lecturer and researcher at Hildesheim University Ann-Katrin contributes to IFS research.

Participation & Certification

Participation

- Upon completion of the training, you will receive a certificate of participation from the international IFS Institute (requirement: attendance of at least 75 out of 89.5 training hours).
- This certificate allows you to integrate the IFS model into your therapeutic work.
- It also qualifies you to apply for:
 - Advanced IFS trainings (e.g., Level 2, Level 3)
 - Programs recognized by the international IFS Institute
 - Serving as a Program Assistant (PA) in future trainings

Certification

- Important: Participation in a training does not mean that you are automatically certified.
- To become a certified IFS Therapist or IFS Practitioner, you must complete a separate certification process with the international IFS Institute (IFSI).
- Accreditation with the relevant Chamber of Psychotherapists: 142 points (Germany)

Admission Criteria

The Level 1 Training is intended for professionals in the field of mental health. Admission is based on the criteria of the international IFS Institute, adapted for the German-speaking context. The three main admission criteria are:

Membership in a professional association relevant to your therapeutic work.

Training in a psychotherapeutic method
You have already completed training in a psychotherapeutic approach.

License to treat individuals with mental health conditions

You are authorized to treat people with psychological disorders – for example, as a psychiatrist, licensed psychological psychotherapist, child and adolescent psychotherapist, physician, alternative practitioner for psychotherapy (“Heilpraktiker:in”), or psychiatric mental health nurse.

Also eligible – without a license to treat

The following qualifications also meet the admission requirements:

- Social workers or social pedagogues with a master’s degree who work in a clinical or psychological setting
- Art therapists and social education assistants working in a clinical or psychological setting
- Systemic child and youth therapists, systemic couples and family therapists, and clinical addiction counselors with a master’s degree
- Individuals with a master’s or doctoral degree in the field of mental health whose research focuses on IFS

Zoom Instructions

General Information

- The Zoom link will be sent out two days before the training begins. Please make sure to install Zoom in advance. If you haven't installed Zoom yet, you can find it here: Windows | Mac
- If Zoom is already installed, allow enough time for possible software updates. Your device should be able to run the basic version of Zoom without problems.
- Participation works best via a desktop computer, laptop, or iPad with a large screen. Using a smartphone is not recommended.
- Please ensure your internet connection is stable enough to use Zoom reliably.
- Keep your microphone muted during the training—unless you are speaking. Your device should have a functioning microphone so you can be clearly understood.
- To ensure safety and confidentiality, please join from a private space where you are undisturbed and no one can overhear. Participation from public spaces is not permitted.

Recordings

The following applies to all trainings conducted by the IFS Institute:

Participants are not permitted to record any part of the training. Selected portions of the training may be recorded by the IFS AKADEMIE for internal training purposes. These recordings will not be made available to participants. Successful applicants will receive more detailed information well before the training begins.
